Daily Expressions, Phrasal Verbs & Idioms:

1.) "Help yourself": This phrase means to not hesitate when taking something. If someone tells you to "help yourself" it means you can have as much as you want.

"Please help yourself to our hotel's continental breakfast, served from 9:00 am until 10:00 am daily."

2.) "On the house": This means that something is being given to you free of charge. Restaurants in America often give customers drinks or desserts "on the house".

"We are sorry to have kept you waiting to be seated for so long. Please enjoy a round of beers on the house."
